Men and women live together in society, in harmony with each other. There are many people who want to live in peace. This means, each must give up something for the sake of others and for the sake of the common good. In the society of nature, man gradually realized the importance of obedience. Hence they made one among them, the king, whom all would obey without any question. Obedience is a spiritual discipline. It is training for the mind.

The word motivation itself refers to the positive emotions that inspire an individual to persist in difficult situations. Everybody ought to have some rare inspiration to push ahead in their life. Getting moved or inspired by someone who will assist you in achieving your objectives is a constant practise that is necessary for motivation. In any setting, workplace or school, motivation is essential.

Today, I would like to talk to you about the most precious gift we have been given in this life, and that is the gift of life itself. Each and every one of you is unique, special, and capable of making a positive impact in this world. As an English teacher, I see your potential every day. I see your desire to learn, your creativity, and your passion. I want you to know that you have within you all the skills and abilities needed to achieve anything you want in life.

But sometimes, life can be challenging. You may face obstacles and setbacks, and it can be easy to lose sight of your goals and dreams. That is why it's important to remember that life is not about destination, but about the journey. Embrace the ups and downs, use them as opportunities to grow and learn. You should think of your life as a work of art. The choices you make, the experiences you have, and the person you become, will all come together to create a beautiful masterpiece.
